

Investor Advisory

TRANSCEND CONSULTING INC.

*You like to talk about money,
and so do we.*

We are here to guide investors to the pinnacle of growth and visibility that you crave. We are the trusted extra set of eyes that provide a fact-based, quantified assessment to ignite the rocket for financial and productive success. We help get you to the top of the mountain because we know the view is always better up there--and so do you.

Alright, alright, alright... let's talk investing.

Due Diligence

We throw the glasses on for that 20/20 vision

Transcend Consulting recognizes the importance of start-up due diligence. We provide a rigorous assessment before your deal is inked. We have focused knowledge that the market cannot see, ultimately providing complete visibility of your investment's potential.

Protect Your Dime

Do not be blinded by the light

Every business stems from a single great idea, but understanding whether your start-up founder has a practical plan is what launches investment success. If they do not, our questionnaire guides the founder on the necessary steps for successful business development.

Build a Strong Base

The time to not skip leg day to get things running

We offer an array of team-building techniques to strengthen overall focus, goals and drive of your start-up. Our services include the following:

- How to overcome sales challenges
- How to connect with your target audience through messaging
- How to increase external + internal business visibility

If we seem confident, it's because we are. We have worked with 75+ start-ups globally, and that is only continuing to climb. Put us in, coach, we want to hit that home run with you. We don't mess around when it comes to scaling your business, we know this space and are ready take you to the promised land.

Give us a shout, we're ready to shout with you!
